A New Motor.

N. Y. Sun.

Dynamite is coming into use as a means of suicide. A Yorkshire correspondent sends to the British Medical Journal an account of an extraordinary case in which a drunken well-sinker put an end to himself by exploding a dynamite cartridge in his mouth. Strangely enough, although his tongue, teeth, palate and maxillary bones were blown to pieces, the skin of the cheeks and lips remained intact, and, except for extravasation of blood about the eyes, there was little to show externally the cause of his death.

Our Lifetime.

Man lives seventy years. The first thirty are his human years, and pass swiftly by; he is then healthy and happy; he labors cheerfully and rejoices in his existence. The eighteen years of the ass come next, and burden over burden is heaped upon him; he carries the corn that is to feed others, and blows and kicks are the wages of his faithful service. The twelve years of the dog follow, and he loses his teeth and lays in a corner and growls. When these are gone, the ass's ten years are the conclusion. The man, weak and silly, becomes the sport of children.

The Dearest Kind of Put Pie.

Philadelphia Times.

Edward Smith and Robert McGarry, who, it is alleged, trapped and made put-pie out of some choice Antwerp carrier pigeons just imported by Thos. Harvey, of Coopersville, were arrested and held to answer yesterday.

Wicked for Clergymen.
"I believe it to be all wrong and even wicked for clergymen or other public men to be led into giving testimony to quack doctors or vilely stuffed medicines. I, when a well-to-do man, have used a number of the remedies known to all, that all physicians use and trust in daily. We should freely commend it. I therefore cheerfully and heartily commend Hop Bitters for the good they have done me and my friends, firmly believing they have no equal for family use. It will be without them." NEVADA LANDS.
The GAZETTE has recently published some statistics regarding the production of the base metals in Nevada. Considerable space is also given to our desert lands to-day. It will be seen that the production of lands hitherto considered valueless promises to exceed those which are now of recognized value. Our correspondent thinks the growth of interest in the production of compounds which are of use in the arts and sciences will add greatly to the wealth of the State. We have for a long time concurred in this view. He also thinks that in point of value the so-called deserts ought to be surveyed and marketed as well as the agricultural land. This he claims would help every material interest and swell the School Fund receipts considerably.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The Carson Index is authority for the statement that the Department of the Interior is now engaged in furnishing to the Department of Justice the necessary information concerning the sale of public lands in Nevada, from which our State School Fund had accumulated before being diverted to other uses than those contemplated by the terms of the Congressional grants. The Attorney General has requested this action as the necessary preliminary to the preparation of cases for the Federal Courts, should such be found necessary. Attorney General McVeigh has thus far acted with commendable promptitude since being advised of the situation of our school fund.

The alleged Greek Doctor, Bachmyotis, one of the lunatics committed to jail since the assassination for making threats of personal violence to Newcomb of the Secret Service Division of the Treasury Department, was released by Judge Bundy on Monday. Under escort of two Government officers he was taken to the house where he lived when arrested. His trunks were packed and then carried on a train to New York, where he will be placed on a steamer for Europe.

The Carson Appeal is good enough to quote an inconsiderate remark to the effect that we endorse what is pleased to call the survey swindle. We do not endorse anything of the kind. We have said that the survey question ought to be investigated.

Despite the action of the Georgia Legislature making it a crime for Mormon preachers to preach their nefarious doctrines in Georgia, the announcement is made that a Mormon Conference is to be held in that State.

Harry George, a journalist who has won a high place among political economists by his book on "Progress and Poverty," is on the Comstock. He had to go away from home to succeed, and he went and succeeded.

Hartmann, the Nihilist, looks enough like Gaitan to be his twin brother. Hartmann, the Nihilist, should be informed that this Government is too small for him; he had better move. If he don't move, he should have help.

The Cleveland Leader wants the Government to distribute $50,000,000 annually among the States for educational purposes. Our State officers are great friends of education and will no doubt endorse the Leader.

Garfield's Condition To-Day.
Special to the Gazette.
SAN FRANCISCO, August 25.

The President has thus far passed a good day. He rests well, awaking only at intervals. He has taken liquid nourishment by the mouth, and his stomach seems in better condition. The operation of lancing the parotid gland was performed with very satisfactory results. His pulse, temperature and general condition remain about the same as yesterday at this time.

Garfield's Condition Last Night.
WASHINGTON, Aug. 24.

At 11 P. M. the President's pulse was two beats higher than at this time last night, but the reports from the sick room state that the President is sleeping quietly. A breeze has sprung up, lowering the temperature, and its effects will be beneficial. All the members of the Cabinet were at the White House to-night and remained two or three hours, leaving finally at about 10 o'clock. On quitting the Executive Mansion they appeared in a hopeful mood and expressed themselves as inclined to view the case more favorably even than last night. Hamilton and Woodward remain on duty in the surgeon's room to-night, and Dr. Boynton will keep watch in the sick room. There have been but few callers at the White House, either during the day or evening, and things about the mansion were a quiet look. Private Secretary Brown, who has just come from the surgeon's room, brings a report that everything is progressing favorably. The President is resting quietly, and his pulsation has fallen two beats below the figures of the evening bulletins.

Hancock on Arthur.

BOSTON, August 24.

In the cars on his way to Portland, General Hancock was asked his opinion of General Arthur, and, with much warmth, he replied that "he was an able and patriotic, high-minded gentleman, and in the event of his being called to the Chief Magistracy, would discharge the duties with but one purpose—that of benefiting the entire country—and that the people might rely on his judgment with absolute confidence."

The International Council.

NEW YORK, August 24.

Referring to the recent prohibition by Switzerland of the Internationalist Council on her territory, it is stated that the branch council here will, in a day or two, issue a manifesto denouncing the action of the Swiss Federal Council, and extending an invitation to the Socialists to hold their Convention in New York, a city which tyranny is unable to coerce or overawe.

The Fastest Three Heats.

HARTFORD, August 24.

In the pacing race to-day, open to all, Little Brown Jug won; Mattie Hunter second, and Lucy third. Time—2:11½, 2:11½, 2:12½. Little Brown Jug's performance is the fastest three consecutive heats ever paced or trotted. He lowered the pacing record half a second from Sleepy Tom's record of 2:12½.

NEVADA'S DESERTS.

One Who is Familiar With the State Gives Reasons Why They Should Be Surveyed.

[Communicated.]

Editor Gazette:—I notice that some of the State papers are averse to the present rate of survey or the public lands. They call the Nevada deserts valueless. Let us see what may be the facts in regard to these deserts. In the early days of California the summer-parched plains were considered deserts and no one thought they could ever be cultivated. Some thought they would do well enough for stock-raising, but that was about the extent of their value. "I would not give two cents an acre for the whole country," was a careless but common remark, but as time wore on, the wheat and vine patches confined to the damp soil along the wooded streams began to extend their area toward the broad plain, until the whole country, from the Coast Range to the Sierras, became almost an unbroken grain field and vineyard. In this respect, to a certain extent, history is repeating itself.

IN NEVADA.

At first the rancher confined himself to the natural meadows of the well-watered valleys, and was slow to discover that in the adjoining sagebrush desert a more prolific soil was found, which, by irrigating, would produce abundant crops of grain and vegetables. So the sage-brush of the valleys and plains (deserts) is slowly and surely disappearing, to be superseded by large areas of grain, alfalfa and vegetables. In Western Nevada there are streams that afford water enough, properly utilized, to irrigate ten-fold the area of land now under cultivation. In less favored parts of the State, reservoirs may be constructed, and artesian wells bored that will afford water enough to irrigate hundreds of thousands of acres of these desert wastes, but the time has not yet come for their reclamation. Our population, for obvious reasons, increases slowly. Give us a steady, industrious people, who will be content to labor and improve farms, and Nevada may claim honors as an agricultural State that all New England could never hope to attain. But the

GREAT WEALTH OF NEVADA

Lies not altogether in her agricultural valleys, and mountains of mineral veins. Her most barren arid deserts, that are now derided and sneered at, bid fair to become the sources of her greatest wealth. That nature makes nothing in vain is assured by the fact that discoveries are constantly being made of vast deposits of salt, soda, borax, nitre, sulphur, etc., on the desert plains, and in the desert hills that are destitute of vegetation, except scattering, stunted sage-brush and greasewood, ten thousand acres of which would scarcely sustain an ox, and where a horned toad can scarcely live, are also found gypsum, asbestos, silica, kaolin, cinnabar, plumbago, bituminous shale, indications of coal, iron and many other deposits, as well as veins of copper, antimony, galena, gold, silver and other metals, all of which, when fully developed, will constitute immense sources of wealth. But little progress has been made in the development of these valuable deposits, solely on account of the want of some cheaper means of transportation than has yet been afforded. But they are coming. Already narrow-gauge railroads are being projected and constructed to reach these deposits.

ESMERALDA AND CHURCHILL.
The first inception of the Carson and Colorado narrow gauge road had for its object the traffic to be derived from the salt and borax deposits of Esmeralda county. These cover several townships of land and were a few years ago surveyed by the Government for the owners. When the C. & C. R. R. is completed to Columbus the development of these deposits will begin in earnest and will prove a bonanza for the owners. The soda deposits in Churchill county have not been fully developed for want of some better means of transportation. The deposit seems to be almost unlimited; it exists in a solid stratified form and looks like ice as it is quarried from the pits. Notwithstanding the long distance it has to be hauled by teams to the railroad, large quantities are shipped to San Francisco.

THE NITRE DEPOSITS OF HUMBOLDT COUNTY was the subject of a very able paper read before the California Academy of Sciences by Hon. B. B. Redding, which has been published in the San Francisco Bulletin and other papers on the coast, and is now exciting much attention. Immense tracts of apparently worthless desert land have been located by large companies, some of them locating tracts ten or twelve miles in extent. These parties have made application under the deposit system to have the country embracing the nitre fields surveyed, and parties are now in the field making the surveys. A narrow gauge railroad to these deposits has been projected and will undoubtedly be completed in due time. The

SULPHUR DEPOSITS

In Humboldt county are numerous, some of them producing the nearly pure brimstone of commerce. These mines or deposits seem to be capable of producing an almost inexhaustible quantity, but the distance from the C. P. R. R. is considerable and the roads are sandy and heavy. To one of these deposits a narrow gauge railroad is contemplated, connecting with the Central Pacific at Humboldt. In fact these minerals and salines are found in every part of the State, and exist mostly in lands unfit for cultivation, hence these lands should be surveyed as well as the farming, timber and mineral lands in order that parties locating them may secure proper title. With the progress of the railroad system now being extended over the State the development of these great laboratories of nature will proceed and must form one of the leading industries of the State. M.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

Important Matters Which Will Come Up at the September Meeting.

At the next meeting of the Board of County Commissioners, to be held on September 3th, two important questions will come before the Board. It seems that a tax was levied for sewerage purposes some time since. D. A. Bender & Co. advanced the money, but the tax had never been collected, although it has been ordered by the Board. At the coming meeting this matter will be looked into and settled.

The question of the deficiency in the County Treasury is also promised an impartial consideration. Opinion seems divided upon the question of liability. One faction, with an eye to cold law, say that if the money was never actually in the Treasury after its displacement by Norton, the Norton bondsmen are responsible. The other of contrary opinion think that any default of that kind has been cured by Treasurer Boyd's virtual endorsement of the matter as it stood. District Attorney Rankin is preparing an opinion on both these matters to submit to the Board.

General Batterman's Death.

Through a private letter the GAZETTE learns that General Batterman had been complaining slightly of a pain in the region of his heart. On August 23d he consulted Dr. Gilliam, formerly of Virginia City, who pronounced the trouble dilatation of the heart. The trouble complained of did not seem to be anything serious at that time, but it no doubt caused the General's death on the 23rd. The Comstock militia will send representatives to San Francisco if the funeral takes place there.

Mysterious Man.

I. E. Linderman is a very strange man, although a popular fruit dealer. This is his idea of things: This morning early he came to the GAZETTE office with a large box filled with some of the choicest grapes, pears and peaches ever seen in Reno. He laid the box down, said "printers" and left. The force will hold a union prayer meeting this evening and ask for a repetition. Linderman says he keeps everything of the kind at his store on Commercial Row near Sierra.

Literary and Musical.

Extensive preparations are being made for the rendering of Jean Ingelow's "Songs of Seven" next Wednesday night at the Baptist Church. It promises to be one of the finest entertainments ever given in Reno. Glee, choruses, quartettes and solos will be sung, and the recitations will be in character. Mrs. Dr. Scott has charge of the literary part, and Prof. Stimson the music.

Dodge Dead.

General George S. Dodge died at Oakland yesterday morning from the effects of a paralytic stroke received two years ago. His age was forty-two. General Dodge was well known throughout Nevada, and managed the Sharon campaign in this State in 1874.

SIERRA NEVADA.

Is There a Bonanza in the Mine or Has the Carson Appeal Gone Duff?

It begins to look to the Carson Appeal as if the bonanza in Sierra Nevada could no longer be avoided by the management. For two years the drifts which have been run have in nine cases out of ten run bang up against an ore body. These drifts have been abandoned as fast as they have encountered indications. Miners who have worked in the Sierra Nevada are constantly purchasing stock, for their faith in the outlook of the mine is unbounded. Those who have been discharged from the mine tell queer stories of how things have been worked. It has been the custom for a year past to stop working in a drift the instant anything like a kindly formation was encountered. The moment a blast is fired the foreman is on hand to see what sort of rock is thrown out. On one occasion a blast disclosed a mass of ore so rich that the two men who fired the blast secreted pieces of the rock, and they barely had time to do so before the foreman was on the spot. He ordered them to stop work on the drift and it was filed up at once. The rock assayed $3,000. The drifts have been run to such an extent of late that it is hard to make another move without striking ore.

The above is in the nature of a dead point, and the public should be correspondingly shy of it.

A Card.

RENO, Aug. 25th.
I have had a great many teachers male and female attend my writing school. Miss Genie Payne has recently been one of my pupils, and her writing is equal to any teacher that I have ever had. I consider her penmanship equal to my own in every respect. I think the School Trustees ought to give her $10 per month extra pay. C. M. Butts.

School Notes.

The School in North Truckee District, No. 14 will open on Monday next. Miss Frankie Gibbs, teacher. Bishop Whitaker's School for Girls commenced its sixth year to-day. Many young ladies from all parts of the State were on hand promptly for the opening day.

The public school and Mount St. Mary's Academy open on the 29th.

Special Premium.

The special premium mentioned yesterday was the idea of a Long valley rancher and was merely given through Bunder. The intelligent compositor made it read "him" instead of "her," which was an absurd mistake. The child must resemble the lady. Correctly written, the premium reads: $10 to the lady exhibiting a child that most resembles her.

Changed Leaders.

"You've quit going west, Jones. I see you are going north instead."
"Yes, I've slumped on Greeley. I believe Greeley was a damned fool, and I go for the North Pole, now, for a while."
Joe goes to Eagleville. Modoc Co., and will do the merchandising there if the people know their own interests.

Black Leg.

Joe Roberts has just returned from Harney valley, north of Stein's Mountain. He reports that large numbers of cattle are dying about the Devine and Todhunter ranges of black-leg. It is feared that the disease may now become general.

Runaway.

A gray horse ran away with two boys on Commercial Row this afternoon. When opposite Jerry Schooling's store he lost half of his load and the other little fellow bravely kept his seat and headed the steed for the north.

School Supplies.

At Nasby's Bazar you can find a thermometer; also all sorts of school supplies. The thermometer at 9, 11, 1 and 3 to-day read as follows: 74, 79, 82, 81.

Convict Census.

There were 151 convicts in the Nevada State Prison, January 1st, 1880. There are now but 126. This shows a decrease of 25 in eight months.

For Cash.

J. J. Quinn still leads in low prices. Coal Oil 150 lbs. for $1 per can; Barton's Mill-right socket Primer Chicago 20 per cent; tin Roofing, standing and patent seam, 10 tin $3.10 and 12 tin $3.75 per square, guaranteed for three years. Buckeye machines and cutlery at less than catalogue prices. Nails $3.15 per keg. Ten quart milk pans $3.50 per dozen.

BAKED BEANS.

How a Business Tourist Became Fond of Them.

They tell a good story about one Wyman, a diminutive drummer well known here and on the Comstock. He stopped one night at Deming, New Mexico, a favorite resort of the cow boys.

"Madame," said Abe to the landlady, "give me some dinner, and be quick about it. I have not dined since yesterday."

The lady brought him some bean soup.

"Madame, take that soup away. I never eat soup. Bring on the roasts right away."

The lady brought him a large plate of pork and beans.

"Madame, take that away. I never eat those things."

In vain the lady explained that pork and beans was the best the house afforded. He was obdurate, and wanted roast beef, rare. A mild-mannered, blue-eyed cow boy at the table then chipped in: "Beggin' pardon stranger; but you must excuse the lady. We—

"Who are you, sir?" retorted the drummer. "I know my business." "You don't tell me," said the festive cow boy, drawing his navy. "Now, you, eat them beans. I'm goin' to set here an' see you fed. Light into 'em quick, or I'll open you sure, an' put 'em in. This is bizness with me, an' I'm shoutin' in yer ear."

The unfortunate drummer saw blood in the air, and was forced to choke four plates of the unwelcome food down before the cow boy was satisfied with his apology to the landlady.
